Ransom's Mark recounts the story of thirteen-year-old Olive Oatman's journey west by wagon train. Renegade Yavapai capture Olive and her sister in 1851 after the massacre of their family. A year later the Mohaves rescue the sisters and tattoo them with the mark of ransom. The cruelty of Olive's early captivity and the death of her sister from starvation bring Olive to the edge of despair before she discovers what ransom really means.
